Follow-Up: 12/11/2014 - So this time I have learned to take care how I set up assessing outcomes and setting up exams in webcampus. In short, I have learned a bit about assessing my assessing!! I did these essay exams as assignments and do not have access to scores for each specific questions on Exam 1! Oops. Next outing I will separate the questions. This course was my second attempt at a hybrid live-iav/lecture capture and I am happy with the results, but a bit more brainstorming with colleagues is needed. |
