

Great Basin College Certificates, Associate's and Bachelor's Degrees Awarded by General Field of Study and Year of Graduation

Field of Study	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015	% Change
Career & Technical Ed	110	131	155	201	166	51%
Education & Other	65	57	47	60	71	9%
Health Professions	36	58	39	59	50	39%
Business & Computing	61	64	71	95	114	87%
Transfer	121	125	110	115	130	7%
Total	393	435	422	530	531	35%

Degree Level	2011	2012	2013	2014	2015	% Change
Bachelor's	54	61	41	62	59	9%
Associate's	253	261	245	266	289	14%
Certificates	86	113	136	201	183	113%
Total	393	435	422	529	531	35%

- 1) There has been a 35% increase in certificates and degrees awarded during the last five years. Increases have especially occurred in business and computing fields, career and technical education, and in nursing and other health professions.
- 2) Overall, six months after graduating, 95% (of those not continuing their studies) are employed and 81% are employed in their chosen field.
- 3) 97% of the students in career and technical fields (welding, diesel, instrumentation, millwright, and electrical systems) are employed and 82% are employed in their chosen field of study.
- 4) 100% of graduates in the health professions (nursing, radiology technology, medical coding and billing, and human services) are employed and 95% are working in their chosen field of study.
- 5) 75% of 2013 graduates with transfer degrees (AA, AS) continued their studies one year later, 55% were enrolled at GBC.

Graduate Survey Results Six Months After Graduation

2014 Grad Response Rates to Employment Survey Six Months After Graduating	Of those Not Enrolled, % Employed	Of those Employed, % Employed in their Field	% Enrolled after Graduating (many are also employed)
80%	97%	82%	46%
92%	89%	88%	40%
89%	100%	95%	47%
85%	79%	61%	47%
			75%
86%	95%	81%	55%

Source: Combines Perkins accountability reporting with nursing, radiology technology, and education graduate surveys. Response data includes employment data from DETR and from publicly available resources. Enrollment data are from the National Student Clearinghouse.

