2. SGA Update – Alex Porter reported the SGA welcome back week has been moved to Sept. 4th – 7th because of the conflict with the Elko County Fair. SGA is looking to do IAV events and go for unity, but the IAV schedule is tight. Tuesday will be the student social luncheon at 11 a.m. in the Leonard Center; Wednesday will be movie night; Thursday will be the scavenger hunt; Friday will be Friday Follies. Friday Follies will be every other week throughout the semester. SGA is starting up the SOL (Students’ Organizations & Leaders) Programming Board. SOL is a board consisting of all the active student clubs. The theme this year is many communities, one voice. Election week applications are due on September 13 and voting starts on September 17. The student orientations went very well this past weekend. Alex, Isaac Duran, Grace Blair and Adriana Mendez will be attending national summit at the end of September in Washington DC. John suggested making appointments with our delegations to make the most of the trip. Alex reported at the last Nevada Student Alliance meeting that he was chosen as a representative on a state wide E-Learning committee.

4. Classified Council Update – Jolina Adams reported classified council met on the August 14. Classified will be amending their bylaws to state that the vice-chair will move into the co-chair position when one of the co-chair positions is vacated. Currently, the language is vague in this area and they want to clarify the bylaws.

5. Institutional Planning & Effectiveness – Cathy Fulkerson talked about accreditation and Standard 5 on Mission Fulfillment, Adaptation, and Sustainability. Our seven year report is due in March. Cathy has been looking at Standards 3 Planning and Implementation and Standard 4 Effectiveness and Improvement. The TracDat program is going to be very valuable in this process. Leaders need to continue to use the current strategic plan online and update it as they can. Cathy is developing data/report for the GBC Advisory Board. In March when the accreditors are here we probably have to address how are we going to deal with budget cuts.

6. President’s Report – Mark Curtis reported the Legislative Committee to Study the Funding of Higher Education meets tomorrow. The new formula is being touted as being equitable, reasonable and transparent. President Curtis does not agree that it is reasonable and will do his best to stand up for the college. Lynn Mahlberg we should feel good about the tremendous community support that GBC has. They are behind us. Cathy said what about communication to students so that they can continue to enroll without being scared off by the budget issues. Anybody currently enrolled will be completed.

7. Miscellaneous

adjuncts need to get their IDs and access to the CANVAS quickly or it needs to be available publically on the website.

Groupwise email system will be used.

John Rice reported the “Education Drives America” Bus Tour & White House Initiative for how GBC provides outreach to the local tribes by recruiting, retaining and graduating the American Indian student population.

8:30 a.m. on Friday.
