

GBC Career Pathways to Industrial Millwright Technology

A graduate of the Industrial Millwright Technology Program can work in all locations that use machinery to produce a product or service including steel mills, mining operations, gravel quarries, schools, textile mills, food processing plants, automotive plants, shipyards, power plants, hospitals, aerospace industry facilities, etc.

Industrial Millwright Technology Program

*Formal admission is required for this program

