

New Face at the Library

Welcome Paula Smith!

Maybe you've noticed a new face at the library. Paula started working for the library in January, and is in charge of the government documents and periodicals.

Paula has lived in Elko for twelve years and spent the last 3 years working at GBC's Child Care Center.

She is a very proud mother of her four children: Cameron is 24 and attending the University of Utah, Kyle is 22 and Kendall is 20. Both are attending BYU in Idaho. Kyra is 14 and is a student at Adobe Middle School Paula enjoys cooking, reading and crafts. She is always happy to help students with any questions!
