

Assessment: Annual Report

Program (CT) - AAS-Graphic Communications Emphasis

Unit Mission: The mission is student success and the Computer Technologies Department is committed to addressing the disparate and constantly changing needs of students throughout rural Nevada who are preparing for technology-driven careers by improving methods, techniques, and content for delivering high-quality educational experiences.

Outcomes	Assessment Measures	Results	Actions
Computer use in the workplace - Efficiently and ethically use computers and relevant software in the workplace. Outcome Status: Active N/A: 2015-2016 Start Date: 05/09/2016	Assignment - Project - Final Projects in GRC 183 and GRC 256 will be used to measure this outcome. Criterion: 80% of students will earn 70% for their Final Projects in GRC 183 and GRC 256.	Reporting Period: 2015-2016 Criterion Met: Yes Final project grades for Spring 2016 GRC 183 were: 100, 88, 100, 70, 92, 94, 100, 88, 67, 82, 88, 98, and 90. Final project grades for Spring 2016 GRC 256 were: 100, 99, 97, 96, 88, 98, 92, and 74. (09/22/2016)	Action: The results indicate that the outcome is being achieved. The faculty teaching these classes will continue to ensure the courses and final projects enable students to achieve the outcome. (09/22/2016)