

Library Advisory Group Proposed Name Change: Action Item

The Library Advisory Group recommends changing our name to the Learning Commons Advisory Group to reflect the recent merger of library, testing/tutoring and career center services. This name change will allow the committee to think holistically about the services, policies and procedures within our department and develop strategies to make our services more accessible to all GBC students, regardless of location.